A HOLY SONNET

"Death Be Not Proud"
By John Donne

Bryant Hand

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow. Die not, poor Death, nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be, Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go, rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men, and dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell, And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well. And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then? One short sleep past, we wake eternally. And death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die.

SONG My Lord, What A Morning Johnny Jackson,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF TITHES & OFFERINGS -from Matthew 6 Mary Anne Taylor

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Let us present our tithes and offerings.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE Love Lifted Me Bryant Hand
I was sinking deep in sin, far from the peaceful shore. Very deeply stained within, seeking to rise no more. But the Master of the Sea heard my despairing cry. From the waters lifted me now safe am I. Love lifted me. Love lifted me. When nothing else would help- love lifted me. Love lifted me. Love lifted me. When nothing else could help- Love lifted me.

POEM "All is Well" Betty Williams
By: Henry Scott Holland

Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped into the next room I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, Speak to me in the easy way which you always used Put no difference in your tone, Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, Just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

SONG Circle Be Unbroken Roger and Melissa Hammett
Ada R. Habershon with music by Charles H. Gabriel

May the circle be unbroken, by and by Lord by and by. There's a better home a-waitin' in the sky, Lord in the sky.

SONG I'll Fly Away Mimi Gentry

*I'll fly away, oh glory, I'll fly away (in the morning).
When I die, hallelujah by and by. I'll fly away.*
